FOREWORD

■ ■

ABOVE the turmoil of the city there arises a blatant call. It is the bugle of unrest, the instrument of Democracy. This master influence has awakened humanity till now, at the dawn of the twentieth century, practically every daughter of Chicago has set her given standard of attainment and has striven earnestly toward her goal. Many have won their honors and borne them gracefully—hence this scroll, that we may record, for the annals of time, Chicago's Prominent Women and their activities, lest we forget, in the glories of the future, the honors of the hour.

THE "Chicago Social and Club Register" is the first book to be published, in recognition of Chicago Women and their achievements. It is of particular value as in many instances it will be the only printed record of the life work of many Women prominent in the Civic, Philanthropic, Professional, Commercial and Political circles of our city.

A most sincere effort has been made to procure authentic data from all eligible for inclusion. However, in many instances names will be lacking which should have been included, but in practically all such cases the omission is not due to any lack of effort on the part of the compilers. The "Chicago Social and Club Register" may be used as a dependable reference book in as much as space for the sketches was not purchasable and the edition is in no respect a commercial venture. Facts in nearly every instance have been personally procured and in the compilation of this edition we have made an earnest effort to give Chicago an authentic biographical reference book of her Women and their attainments.
